Shelf AWARENESS

daily enlightenment for the book trade

For the book trade:

PRO is a free daily e-mail newsletter, dedicated to helping people in the book industry make smart decisions about buying, selling and lending books.

Background: In 2005, Shelf Awareness was created to provide the people in the book industry—booksellers, librarians, non-traditional stores, media, and publishers with the most essential news and information to start their day. We report on news, titles, media appearances, movie tie-ins, and tips about everything a bookstore needs to know to be successful in an ever-changing world. We are often considered to be the essential daily read of the –book business community.

Shelf Awareness is published by John Mutter, the longtime executive editor of bookselling at Publishers Weekly and executive editor of the former PW Daily for Booksellers, and Jenn Risko who's worked in sales, marketing and management for publishers large and small.

“Shelf Awareness is equal to my beloved cup of morning coffee. I need it. I love reading it. I learn so much from it, and it gets my day going. That’s why it is one of our primary advertising vehicles to get the word out about new releases to booksellers and readers.”

—Judy Hottensen, Associate Publisher, Grove Atlantic

“We love Shelf Awareness and we read it every day. We appreciate how much you are doing to support indies.”

– Elizabeth Bluemle, Owner, Flying Pig Bookstore

enlightenment for readers

For all book lovers:

Readers is a free weekly e-mail newsletter that reviews the twenty-five best books publishing each week.

Background: Our weekly consumer facing Shelf for Readers helps book lovers discover the best titles publishing that week. Every issue features reviews for the titles we are most excited about—from all genres—written by booksellers, librarians, bloggers and industry insiders. As well, we feature author interviews, picks from backlist, and fun and interesting tidbits from the world of books.

“With a dedicated and engaged readership, Shelf Awareness is a go-to when I want to start buzz! The team helps us craft well-rounded campaigns for both Pro and Readers to make an impact within the industry and connect with customers. I appreciate the partnership and their keen insights into the bookselling business.”

—Nancy Trypuc, Vice President, Executive Director of Marketing, Flatiron Books

Bookstore Newsletter

Shelf Awareness Pro began as a way to provide booksellers with information on the industry and help them sell more books. Continuing with that mission, we offer bookstores a free, customized version of Shelf Awareness for Readers to bookstores to send out to their customers. The issues are co-branded with the bookstore’s logo and each review in the issue is accompanied by a buy button that links back to the store’s e-commerce page for the title, driving sales back to the bookstore. Bookstores have the option of swapping the introductory editorial for their own message. When you purchase an ad in Shelf Awareness for Readers, it runs in the bookstores’ Shelf Awareness newsletters as well. An up-to-date list of our 250+ bookstore partner stores is available on our website at: shelf-awareness.com/bookstores.html.

Upcoming Books We Know You'll Love

For all book lovers:

Focus on Future Titles—The Pre-Order eBlast

Background: In 2019 our store partners were searching for a way to get customers to place pre-publication book orders with independent bookstores. The conversation centered on educating customers and re-claiming orders from on-line retailers. After extensive conversation with our partners, we rolled out our first Pre-Order eBlast in July of 2020 and immediately began helping stores claim pre-order activity from their own customers. We are tremendously proud to be helping bookstores with such an important part of their business.

“We are thrilled with the response we get to our Shelf Awareness Pre-order Blast each month – tons of clicks and, more importantly, many pre-orders placed each month! We couldn't be happier!”

—Elizabeth Jordan (Nowhere Bookshop—San Antonio, TX)

The Shelf Awareness Pre-order newsletter is the only “outside” newsletter I send to my customers. The format is simple yet effective; my customers can immediately purchase the book directly from our website! Shelf also lets me know what other titles they considered – it’s like an additional curation tool for our store!

—Kathy Burnette (Brain Lair Books—South Bend, IN)

How it Works

Each month our editorial team selects eleven key titles for the Pre-Order eBlast and shares them with our store partners. At this point, stores have the ability to swap out a title if they feel there is a title their customers must see. Stores LOVE this customization option. The Pre-Order eBlast is sent to the stores’ email lists on the last Wednesday of each month.

MAXIMUM Shelf

brought to you by Shelf Awareness

For the Book Trade and All Book Lovers:

Maximum Shelf and Galley Love of the Week

Maximum Shelf allows us to zero in on one special title in a stand-alone issue: we think of this as our opportunity to hand-sell a title. It includes an extended review, and an additional editorial piece planned with the publisher—usually an author interview—and all the ad space in the issue. Both GLOW and Maximum Shelf publish once per week, and titles must be vetted by our editors, Email sales@shelf-awareness.com about availability and we'll guide you from there. Inclusion in Readers as a Feature is available for an additional charge.

Galley Love of the Week: We've built a strong reputation for having excellent taste in books and bringing them to light. Galley Love of the Week (we call it GLOW) aims to bring very early attention to an important title. It provides an editor with the opportunity to position a book to the entire PRO audience.

"I read PRO because I like to feel connected to the industry. Bookselling in our little neighborhoods can occasionally feel isolating and reading PRO each morning makes me feel part of something larger. I also use it to get ideas – I love the sidelines reports and the chalkboard signs for that reason."

—Hannah Harlow, The Bookshop of Beverly Farms
